

We are strongly opposed to any weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Since it was enacted, we have, finally, felt in control of the telephone service that as consumers we pay for. To allow the CBA's efforts to once again invade our home and privacy, in an attempt to sell products, would be outrageous. We will not purchase anything "hawked" over the telephone. These calls are counterproductive to the sellers purpose, in our household. We believe that the FCC has a responsibility to protect the consumer; not to bow to corporate desire to increase profit potential.
